

PUZZLED

On What To Do With The Fam While Turning Up Downtown?

Test your DTO IQ by filling in the blanks and discovering how to turn up the family-friendly fun during your next visit to downtown Orlando.

DOWN:

1. Where you can stick your nose in a good book.
5. What's downtown Orlando's nickname?
Hint: It's also the perfect sculpture to take a photo with.
6. Take your turn at the wheel in this studio and build your own masterpiece.
16. Where you can pedal around with the swans, discover your muse, and enjoy skyline views.

ACROSS:

2. Catch a world-class concert or ballet here.
3. Where you can catch a movie under the stars while gazing at swans swimming by.
4. A series of public sculptures ready to discover around downtown.
7. Take a tour of Central Florida history in this former courthouse.
8. A purr-fectly beautiful place for a quick bite and a cuddle with a feline friend.
9. Your ticket to popcorn and a red carpet premiere.
10. It's always tea time here, and fancy hats are invited.
11. An epic place for Vikings or lumberjacks with a chip on their shoulder.
12. Cheer for the home team or sing along with your favorite band here.
13. This would be a great place for Houdini to unwind.
14. Step into this parlour for ice-cold treats and piping hot lattes.
15. Learn about Orlando's African American heritage in this former hotel.

Answer Key:
 1. Orlando Public Library 2. Dr. Phillips Center For
 The Performing Arts 3. Movieola 4. See Art Orlando
 5. DTO 6. Orlando Pottery Studio 7. Orange County
 Regional History Center 8. Kitty Beautiful 9. Cinemas
 Plaza Cafe 10. The Tea Room Experience 11. Epic Axe
 Throwing 12. Amway Center 13. The Great Escape
 Wells'Built Museum